Michael Biber (39) has been at the helm of the Guest Events division at Messe Frankfurt Venue GmbH since January 2020. In this function, he is responsible for some 280 guest fairs, congresses, conferences, concerts and other events every year. Biber reports to Uwe Behm, Member of the Executive Board of Messe Frankfurt GmbH.

Michael Biber, Vice President Messe Frankfurt

Michael Biber takes over from Johann Thoma, who stepped down as Vice President at the beginning of the new year, handing the reins over to the next generation. Biber is carrying out his new function as Vice President of Guest Events in addition to his existing responsibilities as Group Show Director for Entertainment, Media & Creative Industries. As of May 2020, he will then be concentrating exclusively on his new role.

A graduate in Business Administration from Baden-Württemberg Cooperative State University (DHBW), Michael Biber joined Messe Frankfurt in 2004, since when he has held various positions. As well as being in charge of Prolight + Sound since 2010, he took over as head of Messe Frankfurt's Entertainment, Media & Creative Industries division as Group Show Director in 2016.

In Michael Biber, the company has a seasoned trade fair expert with extensive expertise and experience with high-profile events and in dealing with discerning international customers. As Uwe Behm explains: “We are delighted to have someone with Michael Biber’s international experience at the head of this division. The division will benefit greatly from his vast experience in the trade fair business and in event engineering. With this appointment, we are continuing our efforts to further strengthen the position of our Guest Events division and to steer it towards a successful future.”
